DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-2 and 4 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1, 2, and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hiroshima et al. (US 6,426,725).

Regarding claim 1, Hiroshima et al. discloses a single antenna component/device comprising: a first structure and a second structure that is integrated/bonded with the first structure, wherein the first structure is a balanced-to-unbalanced transformer (balun) and the second structure is a filter (see, for example, Figs. 8-9 and the text of column 13, lines 35-48).

Regarding claim 2, Hiroshima et al.'s device comprising a balun/transformer for moving a signal from one form to another (column 13, lines 39-41).

Art Unit: 2819

Regarding claim 4, Hiroshima et al.'s device comprising a resonator-based filter – a filter comprises resonator(s) (column 2, lines 61-65).

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claims 13-20 are allowed.
5. Claims 5-12 and 21 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Prior Art

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure (see the attached PTO-892).
